Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. This man came to Jesus by night and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do unless God is with him.” Jesus answered him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God.” Nicodemus said to him, “How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother’s womb and be born?” Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not marvel that I said to you, ‘You must be born again.’ The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit.”

Today's Gospel Lesson

Second Sunday in Lent

March 5, 2023

Jesus talked about being born of water and the Spirit.
This happens to us at baptism!

Nicodemus visited Jesus at night.

Complete the night picture by drawing the following:
Hills, trees, the moon, stars, and an owl.

Use a dark color to shade the area around your picture to make it look like night.

In Genesis 12:1-9, God made several wonderful promises to Abraham.

Use the code to write the letters on the lines and discover what those promises were!

I will make of you a great:

You will become this for others:

I will give this land to your:

The place you are going is called:
