Message from Pastor Glenn

From the Pastor's desk,

The weekend before our scheduled move from Lady-smith, Wisconsin to Pigeon, Michigan, tiny flakes of snow began to fall and soon the ground was fully covered! We knew that snow would appear one of these fall days, but that particular morning it finally arrived. The mere mention of the word 'snow' can cause mixed emotions, but when you finally witness its arrival it can instantly transform you into "fall/winter preparation mode!"

The Merriam-Webster Online dictionary defines the word prepare: "to make ready beforehand for some purpose, use, or activity." It is true that the majority of our daily activities have us preparing for something. We have a good sense of what needs to be done this day to prepare for tomorrow. While the fall season with its colors is a favorite in the upper Midwest, it brings with it the responsibilities of making ready for the next upcoming season.

This is the time of year to harvest the remaining fruits and vegetables in our gardens, rake the leaves, fortify the compost pile, mow the lawn one last time, and put outside items inside the shed. Farmers will be harvesting crops and fertilizing their acreage to prepare their fields for a season of rest.

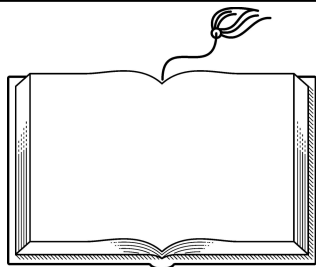

For many hunters, the yearly ritual of preparing for the big hunt may begin. Inventory of hunting equipment and clothing is first on the long list of activities. Those who enjoy ice fishing will be locating tip-ups and jigging poles, while dreaming of colder nights to produce good ice.

Finally, there is the welcome anticipation of family and friends to gather together in the upcoming months, especially during the week of Thanksgiving to share God's blessings of food and fellowship with one another. The peace and harmony of those occasions will depend on the planning and preparation for menu items to begin very soon.

This is also a time of preparation in anticipation of the changing seasons for Cross Lutheran Church and School. The end of the church year is Sunday, November 24th with Christ the King Sunday and the new (Cont. on Pg. 2) church year begins the following Sunday on December 1st with the First Sunday in Advent. Soon we will begin a new church year together hearing once again the old, old story and the promise of new life, eternal life.

Paul wrote to Timothy to prepare him in his vocation of ministry by saying, “preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching.” (2 Timothy 4:2) Not only is

Paul's message relevant during this season of colder weather and snow, but continues to speak to us all year long as a reminder. “Be ready in season and out of season.”

As faithful Christians, the Holy Spirit continues to prepare us each time we hear the Word of God. It is making us ready for the coming of Christ. It is a new season of preparation as we gather together in anticipation of the joyous Season of Advent. May you be filled with faith, love, and hope as you wait for His coming...

In Christ,
Pastor Glenn

From the Desk of ... Carrie Ward

Recently I heard someone say that our minds are more likely to fixate on the negative than the positive. I thought that an interesting statement and have often been reminded of it in the weeks since I heard it. I notice it in the conversations with my children at home, with the students in my class, with family and friends, even in the conversations with people I run into in the stores. We do have a tendency to dwell on the unlovely, rather than the lovely. I wonder why that is. I wonder why I am able to look past all the beautiful and good things that the Lord brings, and fix my mind more on the ugly and troublesome things. Ever since I heard that bit of information I have been working at changing it in my own life. Choosing to think on the good things that the day has brought rather than the not so good. I find that there are many things to be thankful for throughout the course of a day, so many more than there are negative things. It is a challenge for sure, but it is well worth doing.

In this season of Thanksgiving, a time when we pause and look at all that we have to be thankful for, I want to encourage you to look at the good and focus on what God has done for us. He has done so much. So much more than we could have ever hoped for. When there is struggle and strife, remember that God is good and focus your mind on Him. His promises are true and He never fails. While there are many challenges that we face day by day, the blessings are more! I encourage you to look and think on the many ways that God has proved He is good and faithful in your life and be thankful that He has never and will never let you down. "Finally brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable - if there is any moral excellence and if there is any praise - dwell on these things." Philippians 4:8

Parish Life Ministries

October 1, 2019

Parish Life met October 1st in the church overflow. Members present: Betty Grimaldi, Alice Trost, Paul Schuette and Nancy Schuette. Betty opened with devotions and prayer.

Pam was absent so only account of money was from Nancy with coffee hour money totaling $133.35.

We discussed the coming of our new pastor. He and his wife will be here the week of October 13 and will preach Reformation Sunday, October 27. We were asked about providing meals for them the first few days they are here. We discussed it and decided to decline doing it. We don't know food allergies or if diabetic. Also, we wouldn't want strangers dropping in while we are trying to get our home in order. We decided Parish Life would provide $50 gift certificates for Pigeon Family Market and Main Street Café, so they can pick up food at the deli or go for a meal at the café when they are ready. If our groups would like to join us, they could add whatever amount they'd like or give their own gift cards or provide meals as their group decides.

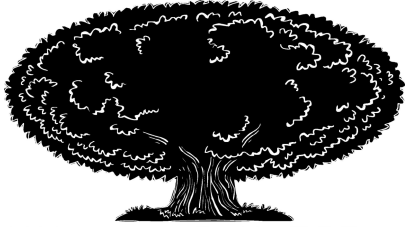

Prayers were requested for our former member, Sue Loehrke. She was having foot surgery today and will need lots of healing and care for some time to come.

Our next coffee hour is November 5.

The meeting closed at 2:30 with The Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Nancy Schuette, chairman

A NOTE FROM KATHLEEN

Dear Members of Cross Lutheran Church and School, Greetings from Kenya! I just want to say THANK YOU for all of your prayers! On many levels, your prayers are being answered on this side of the world in Kenya as God is faithful. I have had a terrible stiff neck, foot pain, coughing in the past months and healing has come. Above and beyond my personal ailments... He blesses our mission as I am able through Him to get the Word to the unreached. With your support and prayers, more are being gifted with Bibles and for some it is their first time to hear the Word in their native language of Swahili, Samburu and Kikuyu. And, more languages are being recorded on audio Bible through the work of TheoVision. I have had opportunity to partner with pastors of TheoVision and congregations to travel to rural areas, training pastors and community leaders in the development of Bible listening groups. This is a great evangelism tool in areas where people cannot read or prefer listening to God's Word. I have seen a Maasai herding his sheep and goats in the field listening to the audio Bible. It brings to my mind the wonderment of the shepherds who heard the Good News while watching their sheep at night. Another completely different part of my mission takes me into the Kawangware and Gataka slum areas where I am getting Bibles to HIV support groups, those often outcast from society. We are also working to help the members in the development of self-sustainable small businesses to have better living. We have in mind projects involving marketing clean water and bead work.

Please pray... for safety in my travel, lives to be transformed by the hearing of the Word and for provisions needed to develop small businesses for the poor to have better living.

You are in my prayers. May God bless you!

Your partner in God's mission,

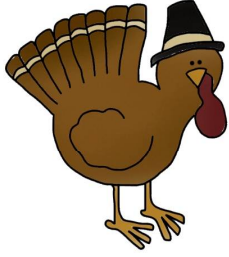

Kathleen Lutz

Mission & Development Associate
