Message from Pastor Tim

My dearly beloved family of Cross Lutheran Church,

By now most of you have heard that on Sunday, Dec. 17, I announced my retirement and submitted my letter of resignation to the call of Word and Sacrament to Cross Evangelical Lutheran Church and School. My last Sunday will be June 10, 2018. My last official day will be Friday, June 15, 2018.

Sue and I will be moving closer to our granddaughters who live in Howland, OH which is just north of Youngstown, OH.

I have been in discernment with the NALC Bishop, Assistant Bishop, and the Dean of the North Eastern Ohio Mission District (NEOMD) and other pastors as to my retirement intentions. Once settled in our new place, I will make myself available for supply pastor, interim work within the NEOMD and anywhere the NALC feels I am capable and worthy to assist.

In announcing my retirement and eventual departure in June, I cannot come back for funerals, weddings, baptisms, etc. Proper pastoral protocol does not permit that for departing pastors.

This decision has been in discernment for almost two years. With my age and the demands of the church and school, all of that combined came up with one decision, now is the time for me to leave so Cross church and school can grow and move forward.

I have truly been blessed by God in sending me here as his servant to Cross. I have grown tremendously as a pastor. I have taken away from this great family of Cross more than I have given. For that I apologize.

Let us pray,

Lord God, you have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hand is leading us and your love supporting us;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

God's peace

From the Desk of ... Beth Elston

Routine is important for children. In fact, it is one of the foundations of an Early Childhood program. In the pre-school, the daily schedule is carefully planned to ensure that students have the best environment for success.

Our daily schedule provides a flow for the class day. It provides a balance of intensity with informal and relaxing times. It requires times of teacher directed activities and child directed activities, so that students are both receiving input and engaging in output in the form of experimentation and practice in a variety of activities.

A consistent routine through a good daily schedule provides many benefits for children. Because routines are established and internalized by students, they have security in knowing what will happen next, when it will happen, and how it happens through familiar procedures. This familiarity functions as a normalizing factor in their lives; that is, it provides a framework of usual and comfortable happenings, which can be very helpful when there are interruptions, changes and perhaps anxious situations that may be a challenge for them. Routines also establish boundaries within which children have space to explore, learn and create. Ultimately, consistent routines help children develop their own ability to monitor their own minds and emotions.

Routines, then, need not be a burden. Rather, they are a blessing of comfort and stability. Remember the words from Ecclesiastes chapter 3: For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven. (NRSV)

Norm Nelson gave an oral report covering investment activity. He also requested the authorization to be able to sign checks in order to carry on financial business when June Sturm is unavailable. Kim Delpiere made a motion to have Norm Nelson added to the account in order to not hinder business and Barb Degg seconded the motion. Motion carried.

MINISTRY OF WORSHIP AND MUSIC: Barb Degg was present and provided her oral report. Preparations for the Christmas concert are in place.

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION: Kim Delpiere reported that the meeting that took place after service Sunday, Nov. 19 to brainstorm about programs to minister to our youth was well attended with many good ideas being shared. A review of these suggestions is ongoing with further information to be shared in the future.

MINISTRY OF MISSION OUT-REACH: A written report was submitted and Lorraine LePage shared that the Pigeon Food Pantry was grateful for donations made when the pantry was low on stock after the Thanksgiving holiday.

MINISTRY OF YOUTH: There was nothing to report.

MINISTRY OF PROPERTY: There was nothing to report.

MINISTRY OF PARISH LIFE: A written report was submitted and Nancy Schuette highlighted an event that is being planned for the spring. She also passed on that requests were made by people hosting coffee hours that red punch NOT be served because it stains the new carpet if spilled.

OLD BUSINESS:

Kent McKenzie will contact the office to get gift cards ordered for staff and support help.

Nancy Heck reviewed several recommendations from the Audit Committee. There was discussion and further investigation will be done as to requirements needed to implement when books are reviewed.

NEW BUSINESS:

AAU volleyball team has requested the use of the Cross gym for practice. After discussion of scheduling a motion was made by Barb Degg to not hold the practices this season and seconded by Lorraine LePage. Norm Nelson opposed the motion. The motion carried and will be reviewed again next year.

NEXT COUNCIL MEETING:

Tuesday, January 9, 2017 at 7:00 p.m.

ADJOURNMENT: There being no further business to come before the meeting, it was adjourned and good things from around the room were shared by all present. The meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer at 8:10 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Rachel Higgins, Secretary

WINTER

Coffee Hour

Not only can ministry groups sign up to host a coffee hour, anyone can! You can earn funds for a student's tuition or donate the proceeds to the church general fund, school's tuition assistance fund, building fund, music fund, capital improvement fund, cemetery fund, benevolence, or LEAF fund.

The coffee hour you host can be simply juice, coffee and cookies, or you can offer up a feast of goodies. It's your choice! Just sign up on the Coffee Hour Chart in the Overflow area.

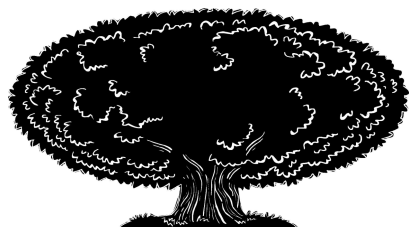

Mailboxes

To save on postage, information, financial statements and other correspondence is placed there, Please check them regularly.

Church Service CDs

Each Sunday our church service is being recorded. The CDs are available to pick up the following week at the Welcome Deck for shut-ins or anybody who would like to listen to our church service. A big thanks to Randy Ovcen for preparing and making the CDs.

MISSION OUTREACH MINIS- TRY MINUTES

November 28, 2017

The meeting was called to order by Lorraine LePage, who led us in prayer. Those present were Lori Smith, Gwen Ovcen, RoseAnn Budnick, Bonnie Schulz, Lorraine LePage, Tonja Nelson, Krisie Fritz and Connie Eden. The minutes of the October 17, 2017 meeting were reviewed and approved. Of note, the $10 gift cards that were to have been included in the food pantry Thanksgiving baskets were not done for Thanksgiving, but will be included in the Christmas baskets as a gift from Cross Lutheran Church. The Treasurer's report showed a balance of $2,753.65 in the checking account. The Treasurer's report was approved. A thank you note from NALC Disaster Response was read.

BUSINESS: Operation Christmas Child Review – 535 shoeboxes were packed. Thank You notes will be sent to Laker FFA, Bad Axe Presbyterian Church and The Village of Pigeon for use of the VFW Hall. Recording of Church Service – A member has requested weekly recordings of the church service. Mission Outreach will cover the costs and arrange for them to be mailed. Mom to Mom Sale – We discussed possible changes to increase attendance at the sale. It will be discussed again later. Change Meeting Date – Because of our meeting date being later in the month, our minutes don't get in before the newsletter deadline each month. It was decided to change our meeting date to the 1st Tuesday of each month, starting January 2. The time will remain at 6:30 p.m. Because this is also Men's Bible Study night, we may need to meet in the choir room. Christmas Cards – Bonnie will be sending Christmas cards to our shut-ins. Coffee Hour – Group 2 will be serving coffee hour on December 10.

Scrip Schedule: December 3 – Tonja and Lori; December 10 – Krisie and Connie; December 17 – Gwen and Lorraine.

There will be no meeting in December. Our next meeting will be January 2, 2018. With no further business, the meeting was adjourned with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Connie Eden

Mission/Outreach

Ministry Notes

Scrip cards will be sold on Sunday, January 7th, at the welcome desk after the service.

Cross to the Rescue

Imagine quietly listening to prayers, getting ready to share the peace and suddenly having the room spin so fast that there is no up or down. That is what happened to me a couple weeks ago in church. The blessing hidden in this experience was the response of my fellow worshipers. I am deeply grateful to those who came to assist Jeanne and me by providing the help that we needed. Also appreciated were the many well-wishers who called later to express their concerns and prayers for a good recovery. I am always amazed by the unity and warmth of the Cross community. Now I have a personal experience to reinforce those feelings. We are indeed privileged to be among such friends that provide unquestioning support. Perhaps that is the greatest Christmas gift of all; that the birth of the Christ child shines through all of us.

By the way, I was diagnosed with vertigo and I told the doctor that I am no dizzier now than in the last 65 years. God's grace grants me the privilege to continue my journey here.

May God grant you a Blessed Christmas Season and a Happy New Year.

Mike Sting
