But concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only. For as were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, and they were unaware until the flood came and swept them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. Then two men will be in the field; one will be taken and one left. Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and one left. Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

Today's Gospel Lesson

First Sunday of Advent
 November 30, 2025

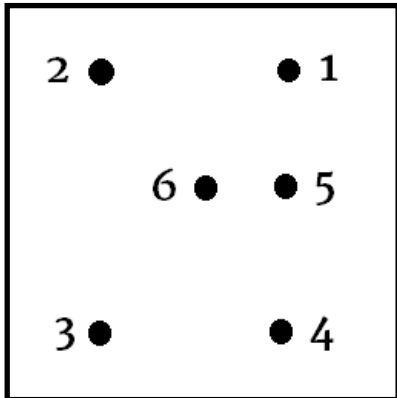

Jesus will come back some day. Be ready!

Children's Worship Pages

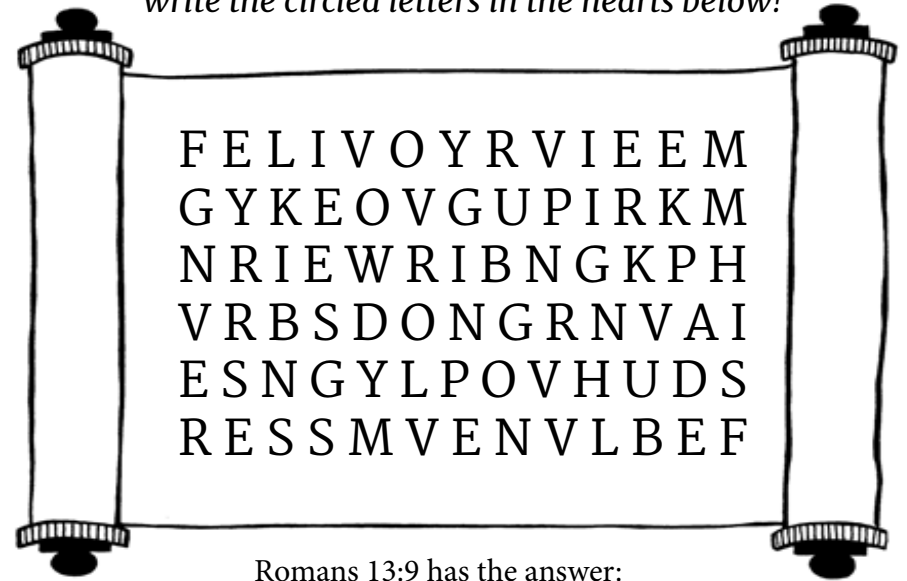

Advent is a time of waiting and watching.
Who knows when Jesus will return? Only _____.

To find the answer, do the dot-to-dots!

The ten commandments were important to Jesus.
How can you obey many of them at once?

To find out, circle every third letter in the scroll. Then, write the circled letters in the hearts below!

Romans 13:9 has the answer:
