Listening for the Promise

Weekly Devotional

February 17, 2021 — Ash Wednesday

“Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.” - Psalm 51:1-2 -

Each year, the season of Lent poses the ultimate question, “How is it with your soul?” And we, who like to be in control, are given a smudge on our forehead to remind us that we are not. This smudge is a reminder that my bank account, my reputation, my skill, my good health, my acts of devotion – none of these can remove the specter of death from my life. See, you and I have this tendency, not only to deny death, but through our transgressions, we deny life with amazing regularity. This season of Lent calls us to examine our hearts, that we might compare ourselves, not to friends or neighbors or fellow disciples, but to Jesus Christ.

Psalm 51 is King David’s attempt to come to terms with his enemy – not some neighboring tribe or some invading nation, but himself. He is dealing with an inner battle of right and wrong, sin and guilt. Much like the battles you and I fight every day, and for David, it’s a losing battle.

David lost his battle with lust when he saw the beautiful Bathsheba bathing on the rooftop. He lost a second battle as lust gave way to adultery, and he lost again when adultery gave way to murder and the death of Bathsheba’s innocent husband. The prophet Nathan confronts David with his sin, and now David must ask, “How is it with your soul?”

The dust of guilt blows hard against him, stinging his conscience and making his life a gritty mess. In his selfish pursuit of pleasure, David has travelled far down a path which has taken him from God. He knows he cannot continue this painful road, so he turns around, turns back to God in an act of repentance. He pleads with God, “Blot out my transgressions. Wash away my iniquity.”

Ash Wednesday reminds us that we have a problem – we are sinners. But Ash Wednesday is also a promise, because that smudge of ash on our foreheads is in the sign of the cross, the sign of life and hope. We sing in worship, “Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right Spirit within me.” We do so because we know we cannot do better on our own stream. It’s why we need a Savior. It’s why Jesus died. For you. For me. The ability to receive this great love is a gift, that enables us to answer, “It is well.”

NALC WORKSHOP
FEBRUARY 3, 2024
9:00-2:30
All congregational members

Please join the call committee and church council to pray and collaborate as we develop our church profile. This is everyone's opportunity to be directly involved during the call process. We will work together and share ideas about our church family, school, outreach, community, and local resources that may appeal to a pastor considering a call. Everyone may provide input on what talents and abilities we would be looking for in a pastoral leader for our congregation.

This event will be held on February 3, 2024 from 9am until 2:30pm in the church. Lunch will be provided. The work shop will be facilitated by Pastor Paul Gruetter. The information gathered that day will be collated by the call committee and submitted to the NALC as a notification that we are in need of a Pastor.

There is a signup sheet in the back of the church.
Please mark your calendars and be part of this important process.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
The Call Committee:
Matt Zimmerman, Kathy Azarovitz, John Smith, Carol Diener, Trevor Carriveau and Wes Trowbridge

From the Desk of...Carrie Ward

Hello from the classroom, where we continue to learn how to read and write and do our arithmetic. I trust you all enjoyed a time of rest and relaxation through the Christmas season. I know I am always thankful for the break from the hustle and bustle of a regular work/school day. It is such a blessing to be able to have that time to spend with my family and focus on the things that matter most in our lives, as well as time to catch up on all the things that get set to the side, waiting for a day that I will have the time to do them well. I feel rested and ready for this second half of the school year, and I give thanks for that.

I have noticed a difference in my students as well. They, too, returned to school with smiles on their faces and a willingness to work and focus their minds on the tasks given to them. It seems that we all, young and old, benefit from a break and some time to spend focused on the things we love. God is so good to us. He has given each of us talents and gifts that we enjoy putting to use, as well as opportunities to use them. It's such a wonderful thing to be able to work with these young students of mine and see them develop these gifts and talents as they learn to work and grow together.

Thank you to all of you who use your precious time and gifts and talents to make this school possible. The joy that fills the classrooms, hallways, gym and playground, is evidence that we are doing a work that is pleasing to Him. Your efforts do not go unnoticed and they are appreciated by each family who brings their children through these doors. They know this is a place where God is glorified and worshiped, and their children are experiencing His love on a daily basis. That is a wonderful gift that will keep on giving. I am thankful to be a part of this place and that you are making it possible. May God continue to bless you and this Church and School. Happy New Year!

The Ash Wednesday Service at Cross will be held on February 14th at 6:30 pm.

This service will include Holy Communion.

CROSS OF ASHES

Ash Wednesday – officially known as the Day of Ashes — is a day of repentance, when Christians confess their sins and profess their devotion to God.

On Ash Wednesday, as Lent begins, worshipers' foreheads are often marked with ashes in the sign of the cross. The ashes traditionally come from burning palm branches from the previous Palm Sunday. In the Old Testament, ashes were a sign of mourning and repentance. Today, some worshipers wipe off the ashes before leaving church, to symbolize being cleansed from sin by Jesus' death; others wear the ashes the rest of the day, carrying the cross of Christ into the world. Reciting Genesis 3:19 often accompanies the placement of ashes: "You are dust, and to dust you shall return."

Blessings on the Journey,

Leanne Smith

Is anyone out there?....Are you listening?..... Does anybody care?....Who will answer pleas to serve?....When won't you be too busy?

These are questions sometimes uttered out of frustration. Honestly, they've swirled around in my head, too, at times. It doesn't seem like any church, school, or organization has 100 percent participation of its members. These issues are not new. I'm sure Abraham, Moses, Elijah, and Paul had frustrations in leading God's people.....and just think about how God must feel....He has probably shaken His head more than once over the centuries. His Old Testament people "paid the price" for their choices...bad kings, wars, captivity, death. We shouldn't kid ourselves. Our lives are not immune from "paying the price" for our choices either.

So where am I going with this? When negativity tries to take hold of my thinking, I try my best to choose JOY. Now, I am certainly not perfect, as many of you can attest, but I find choosing JOY to be a far better choice than grumbling. In God's word I am reminded that since the beginning, God has kept His promises and has not given up on any of us. He sent His one and only Son to pay the ultimate price for us. We can all live and SERVE with JOY with the confidence that by grace we have been saved. We are forgiven Children of God.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 Be joyful always, pray at all times, be thankful in all circumstances. This is what God wants from you in your life in union with Christ Jesus.

And so, instead of focusing on the questions at the beginning of this article, I must say that I am thankful for the two youth who came to our Euchre event on January 7, as well as the eleven adults who were there to play and teach. We played well past 6 pm because we had so much fun together. I am thankful for Sunday School students and those who sign up to share the word of God with them. I am thankful for the confirmation kids who talk and talk and even ask questions! I am thankful for all the people who serve at Cross. I am thankful for the prayers of God's people. I am thankful for the Call Committee and the time they are spending on this process. I am thankful God is still in charge and keeps His promises.

I am thankful to announce an event for all Youth of Cross Church and School is coming up on Tuesday, February 13, 2024 from 4:30-6 PM. At 4:30 PM, we will gather in the sanctuary for an opening and then move on to the gym for FAT Tuesday activities. We will eat pancakes, decorate treats, create cards, play games, and make preparations for Lent.

There are many opportunities to serve our Mighty God at Cross Lutheran Church and School. Pray about it, be thankful, and choose JOY! Choose to serve Him!

In His love,

Gwynne Barry, Ministry of Education and Youth

Mission Outreach Ministry

January 3, 2024

The meeting of Mission Outreach was called to order by President Krisie Fritz. Those present were Krisie Fritz, Tonja Nelson, Lorraine LePage, Lori Smith, Sandie Haley, Kay Schuette and Trustee, Nancy Schuette. A prayer was given by Krisie Fritz.

The secretary's report was given. A motion was made by Lorraine and seconded by Kay to approve and accept the minutes as read. Motion carried.

The treasurer's report was given. A budget for 2024 was set up and approved.

The chairs for the overflow area are still being looked at.

A discussion took place on how to get more people to help donate goodies for coffee hour. The Parish Life group has limited members and they would appreciate help with food donations so they don't have to bring every Sunday. Nancy Schuette will be asking groups if they can help out.

Lori Smith will continue the card ministry. If you know someone who could use a card to help cheer them up and let them know they are thought about, let Lori know.

Our next meeting will be February 7th at 6:30 pm. Anyone who is interested in joining this group is welcome to attend. With no further business to discuss the meeting was adjourned with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted, Tonja Nelson
