We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” Having said these things, he spit on the ground and made mud with the saliva. Then he anointed the man’s eyes with the mud and said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing. The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar were saying, “Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?” Some said, “It is he.” Others said, “No, but he is like him.” He kept saying, “I am the man.” So they said to him, “Then how were your eyes opened?” He answered, “The man called Jesus made mud and anointed my eyes and said to me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ So I went and washed and received my sight.”

Jesus healed a man who had been born blind.

Children's Worship Pages

Jesus healed a man who could not see. He also helps us see that we are sinners and our true hope is in him.

What is it like to be blind?

Try to do some "blind drawing." Look at each shape. Then, close your eyes and draw that shape in the empty box to the right.

The blind man said,

"One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see."

(John 9:25)

Color all the other squares black to see the message.

Jesus is a healer. No problem is too big for him!

Put the events in the order they happened (John 9:1-41).

The first one is done for you.

- The man washed in the pool of Siloam.
- 1 Jesus met a blind man.
- After washing, the blind man could see.
- Jesus rubbed mud on the blind man's eyes.
- Jesus spat on the ground and made mud.
