When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do. And now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had with you before the world existed. "I have manifested your name to the people whom you gave me out of the world. Yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything that you have given me is from you.

Today's Gospel Lesson

Seventh Sunday of Easter

May 17, 2023

Jesus prayed that his friends would know God,
his heavenly Father.

Judas had betrayed Jesus.
Now the apostles wanted to replace Judas in their group.
They had two men in mind: Justus and Matthias.
Which one did they choose?

To find the answer,
cross out all the lower case letters in the shaded area.
Then, write the capital letters in the boxes below.

Imagine that you were chosen to be a disciple.
What would be the most exciting part of the job for you?
Draw or write about it here:

Jesus' friends loved him very much. What do you think they talked about after he went back up to heaven?

Write what they are saying in the word bubbles,
and color the picture!
