Message from Pastor Mike

THE EASTER MESSAGE

An old pastor friend of mine told the (allegedly true) story of a parishioner who only ever came to worship on Easter Sunday. One year on his way out of the church, he said to the pastor, "I like your sermons, but why do you always preach on the same thing?"

Of course my friend preached on many different things throughout the year when this gentleman wasn't in church, but the point was well taken. That is because the most important thing any pastor can preach on is the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus on our behalf. We must never stray too far from the cross and the empty tomb, or we start preaching something that is not Christianity.

The preeminent time of year for this core preaching is of course Holy Week, the week from Palm Sunday, April 14 this year, to Easter, April 21. During these days we will zero in with razor sharp focus on the central truths of our faith, by both sermons and special liturgies. On Palm Sunday we remember Jesus' entry into Jerusalem and hear the passion story, this year from Luke. On Maundy Thursday, the night he was betrayed, we remember the last supper and the institution of Holy Communion. We receive individual absolution for our sins in preparation for Sunday. On Good Friday the service focuses on the shadows of the crucifixion and the seven last words.

Then on Easter Sunday we joyfully relight the Easter candle, sing hymns full of “Alleluias” and recommit ourselves to Christ through the affirmation of our baptismal vows. As pastor I will try to speak the Good News as simply and clearly as I can on each of these days – even if it’s the same thing we’ve heard many times before.

Join us for our Easter journey here at Cross Lutheran this April.

From the Desk of ... Carrie Ward

Spring is finally here! Growing up in the Bay Area of California I never really experienced a true coming of spring. The robins didn't ever really disappear and the flowers were always in bloom. The weather was usually a comfortable temperature with the occasional cold snap to make us aware that it truly was winter. It wasn't until I came to Michigan, for college, that I really was able to experience the excitement of spring. My friends laughed at me as I celebrated the first bug I saw, the first flowers popping up, the birds returning, and being able to go outside without my heavy winter coat. I had been taught about the signs of spring, but they never really made sense until I was able to experience it for myself. There truly is an excitement that comes with spring. What a lovely reminder too, that just as the Lord brings us out of winter and into spring, He does so in our lives as well. What a time of refreshing we experience when He brings us through troubled times and into a time of peace. I hope you and your loved ones can take the time to experience the excitement of spring all over again. May God bless you and hold you near as you walk with Him through the many seasons of life.

Fish Fry Report

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. 1 Peter 4:10-11

We had an incredible turn out for the Fish Fry and served over 580 people! Included in the number were a record 337 take-out orders! We had over 90 volunteers who served, prepped, made rolls, baked, set-up, hosted, fried, chopped, scrubbed, ran fish, battered fish, served drinks, filled, smiled, made desserts, cleaned-up, and did so many, many jobs, thank you for your dedication!!!

Also thank you to Kevin Sturm, Thrivent Financial, Thumb Bank and Trust, Bay Port State Bank, CD Sandblasting, Wallace Stone Quarry, Huron Gas, Holli-jays, Shoreline Snowplowing and the many generous anonymous donors who continue to make this event a success!

A total over $6,700 will go into a fund and the council will determine how it will be disbursed. What a pleasure to see God's hands and feet working through the service of His people. Thank You, Thank You, Thank You for your support!!

Joy in the Journey,
Leanne Smith

Praise and Worship Team

We are performing our second Praise and Worship Service on Sunday, March 31st. I am hoping the congregation is even fuller than the first performance in February! We will repeat some of the songs so you can become familiar with them, but we also have three new ones for you to hear and join in on. We received much positive feedback on the February service, so thank you for letting us know how you felt about it.

The Praise and Worship team will be hosting the coffee hour on Sunday, April 14th, which is Palm Sunday. Donations will be added to the Equipment Fund for the Praise and Worship Services.

The third Praise and Worship Service will be on Sunday, April 28th. I am confident that you will have enjoyed the March 31st performance so much that you will be inviting your friends/family/co-workers/teens to come and experience the joy that arises from singing these great songs to God. We can all use a "happy fix" to start off our week!

Parish Life Ministry

Parish Life met March 5, 2019 in the church overflow. Members present: Betty Grimaldi, Alice Trost, Paul Schuette, Pastor Mike, and Nancy Schuette. Betty opened with devotions and prayer.

Nancy reported $129.74 from coffee hours. With help from many, coffee hours are filled well into May. Parish Life thanks everyone that signed up for this wonderful ministry and we pray for your continued support.

Women of Faith will meet March 9 in the overflow at 10:30. They will study the last lesson in their book and choose a new topic to begin in April.

Parish Life is looking into possibly using round tables in the overflow to see if there would be more seating space available. We will be setting up the overflow for Lenten Wednesday night potlucks and Paul will have the coffee ready. Join us for food and fellowship before the service at 7:00 pm.

Thanks to everyone that volunteered to make communion bread – we have enough bakers. Thanks to all.

Betty is looking into having Secret Sisters. She will do more research and report at our next meeting.

The meeting closed at 2:15 with The Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully
